

CUBA.

The Garrison of Las Tunas Suffering for Provisions—Movements of the Insurgents.

HAVANA, July 30, 1899.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Havana Railroad is to be held here next week to decide upon the future management of the road.

Advices from Las Tunas report the garrison there suffering from want of provisions, and anxiously looking for a convoy with supplies from Puerto del Padre.

The insurgents are committing great depredations in the Santiago, Puerto Principe and Trinidad jurisdictions.
