

THE CUBAN WAR IN CANADA.—Some of the Cuban patriots appear to have transferred a portion of their war to Canada. See the phorsewhipping affair of an alleged bogus agent of the Cuban Junta by General Ryan, at the Clifton House, Niagara Falls. The General is one of the Cuban officers who escaped from the clutches of the Marshal's posse at Gardiner's Island. Failing the opportunity to fight in Cuba, he has been exercising his muscle to some purpose in Canada.
