

CUBA.

---

The Bad Weather and Unsystemized Commissariat Preventing Military Operations.

HAVANA, August 11, 1899.

The bad weather and an unsystemized commissariat prevent the Spanish troops from making any move at present. The insurgent forces are held by the same causes and suffer much more from weakness than the Spanish troops on account of their want of medicine and medical attendance.

---

Havana Markets.

HAVANA, August 11, 1899.

Sugar advancing. Nos. 10 to 12 Dutch standard quoted at 8½ a 9 reals, and Nos. 13 to 20 at 9½ a 11 reals per arroba. Exchange steady—quotations unchanged.