

Cuba.

A conscription, including all men from twenty to fifty-five years of age, has been established in Santi Spiritu, and a close embargo has been placed on groceries and provisions for the interior. The volunteers in Havana are said to be ready to take the field. Heavy rains are falling.

*