

Cuba.

Letters received in Washington state that General Quesada attacked the Remedios garrison, which was moving to reinforce Nuevitas, and defeated them, capturing the whole force. A fight also occurred near Trinidad, in which the Spaniards were defeated, 150 of them deserting to the Cubans during the fight. Eighty Cuban prisoners were shot on the plaza at Puerto Principe.