

BROOKLYN CITY.

THE COURTS.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

The Recent Cuban Expeditions—The Amunition Wagons, &c., Confiscated—The Tug-boats Sue for Their Charter Money.

Before Judge Benedict.

Jacob Harriom, Peter Hammond and Catharine A. Franklin vs. Ignatio Alvaro and others, composing the so-called Cuban Junta.—Yesterday Judge Benedict, of the United States District Court, granted a stay of proceedings in regard to the disposition of amunition wagons, &c., which Marshal Dallon was about to sell to satisfy the judgments which had been obtained against the property. The plaintiffs have brought suits to recover the charter money for the use of the tug boats Jonathan Chase, Hiram M. Cool and R. L. Mabey, which were chartered to take a quantity of warlike stores to the isle of Cuba, but which were seized by the government. The first plaintiff sues to recover $3,885, the second the same amount, and the third $3,000.

The case will be brought up for trial at the first session of the District Court.
