

THE EUROPEAN JOURNALS ON THE CUBAN QUESTION.—Almost all the leading English journals have openly expressed the opinion that Cuba is practically lost to Spain. Similar opinions have already been expressed in France. La France, a government organ, has just put the case well when it says "Cuba is lost to Spain. The wisest thing, therefore, Spain can do is to take advantage of the present situation." Spain should take the hint.