

Cuba.

Andrew White, an American, who has been in prison at Havana for seven months, was released recently through the intercession of Consul General Plumb. Two men were shot by the volunteers yesterday for using seditious language.