

GOOD FOR CUBA.—From London, by way of Paris and through the French Atlantic cable, comes intelligence to the effect that "strong rumors" were prevalent in England yesterday pointing to the fact that the Spanish government had arranged the preliminaries of an agreement for the sale of Cuba to the United States. This news, which is highly important, has an air of credibility about it. If confirmed in its main particular it will be good news for Cuba, good for Spain and good for the American people.