

---

SICKLES has intimated to Spain, as per instruction, that the American people cannot be kept quiet much longer in regard to Cuba; that there is a limit to what our government may do in neglecting the wishes of the people, and that recognition must come soon if there is no change. Therefore we hear that Spain is going to send out forthwith from six to twenty-four thousand soldiers. But who has seen these soldiers?

---