

Sudden Departure of the Hornet from Halifax.

HALIFAX, Sept. 13, 1860.

The steamer Hornet put to sea hurriedly last night. She shipped a lot of hard characters at this port at high wages, and took on board a quantity of coal. There is little doubt that she is bound for Cuba.
