

COFFEE OR SUGAR?—Something in the Cuban struggle has just become apparent to the Common Council of this city. That great power has resolved that our city Congressman must urge and vote for the immediate recognition of Cuba. What is the little job? Is it in coffee or sugar—or both? Or have the members been loaded with Cuban bonds on which they are anxious to realize?