

CUBA.

---

Cuban Financiers Coming to the Aid of the Spanish Government.

HAVANA, Sept. 21, 1869.

The directors of the Alianza Bank have offered aid to the government for the purpose of carrying on the war to the amount of the total profits of the bank while the rebellion lasts. The directors have paid, on account of such amount, $30,000.

The brig Thomas Owen and bark Harry Booth have arrived here from New York.