
THE NEWS.

Cuba.

Advices from the insurgents received at Washington state that the Spanish troops were severely whipped in the late fight near Puerto Principe, and the town is deserted by nearly all the Spanish troops. In the battle at Las Tunas Valmaseda's whole force was routed with great loss.