

---

We can hardly believe the report which reached us yesterday from Cuba, that the Captain-General had yielded to the blood-thirsty demands of the volunteers, and ordered that henceforth no prisoners shall be taken, but that all captured Cubans shall be shot. Such an order would bring upon the Spanish Government the execration of the civilized world, and prepare a terrible vengeance for all Spaniards in Cuba in case of a final triumph of the Cuban patriots.

---