PLANTATIONS BURNED BY THE INSURGENTS— EMIGRATION TO THE UNITED STATES.

HAVANA, Feb. 6.—The insurgents have burned 18 large plantations in the Eastern Department. Cholera of a very violent type is prevalent in the insurrectionary district; insurgents, Spanish troops, and citizens falling victims. The steamer Cabrero was lost at sea while carrying Government supplies from Santiago de Cuba to Manzanilla. The attempt of the Cubans to fire the powder magazine at Puerto Principe was frustrated. The Cuban prisoners, Parra and Azcoya, were killed by troops, or volunteers, while attempting to escape from Guantanamo. Private letters deny that they were attempting to escape. Jose Cepeda, late Commissioner to the insurgents, sailed to-day for America. He says he is disgusted with the state of affairs. The influential and wealthy Cuban families, who are generally sympathizers with the revolution, continue to emigrate to New-York and New Orleans.

HAYTI.

SUCCESS OF SALVAGE—SEVERAL TOWNS DESTROYED.

HAVANA, Feb. 6.—The following important news has just been received here from Hayti. Salvage has attacked and destroyed the town of Torbeck. He also bombarded and destroyed Port Salut, and bombarded and captured Aquin. The inhabitants of Aux Cayes and the other towns in that vicinity are panic stricken. All who are able are emigrating to Jamaica.
