GREAT BRITAIN TO CONCEDE BELLIGERENT RIGHTS TO CUBA.

LONDON, April 24.—It is rumored that the Government will adopt a new and bold policy with reference to the Spanish-Cuban question. Belligerent rights are to be conceded to the Cuban insurgents. Assistance may also be rendered to them, and the independence of the island thus assured. This, it is argued, will prevent annexation to the United States, and at the same time give a show of consistency in the Alabama claims and belligerent rights question pending with the American Government.
