

PERSONAL.

Ex-Gov. Bullock of Massachusetts is in Paris.

Gov. Baker of Indiana is confined to his room by illness.

Gutzkow, the German poet, has recovered from his recent insanity.

Napoleon is reported to have attended some of the electoral reunions in Paris in disguise.

Wm. S. Dodge, Mayor of Sitka, has been lecturing on Alaska in several New-England towns.

The Hon. Erastus Corning is again able to give his personal attention to business.

C. W. Weeks of Albany, who was injured by the Annapolis Junction Railroad disaster is recovering.

Señor Pedro Lopez, a nephew of Gen. Lopez, passed through Galveston, Texas, a few days ago, on his way to Cuba to join the insurgents.