

LATEST FROM CUBA

Dulce Coming to His Senses

AMERICAN CITIZENS APPEALING FOR HELP

Revolution Spreading in All Directions

HAVANA, Feb. 14—The insurgents have made their appearance in the district of Talen, under the leadership of Colonel Inclan, a Mexican officer. In Cuzco mountains 2000 men are waiting the signal for revolt. There are other Mexican officers in command of the insurgents in this district and in other parts of the island.

The Cuban passengers who were found on board the schooner Galante have been tried in the Maritime Court for treason and sentenced to death, but General Dulce will probably commute their sentence and send them out of the island to some convict station. The schooner has been declared a legal prize, of which judgment the British Consul has notified his government. He has also expressed his hopes that the captain and men of the schooner will be released.

Advices from Trinidad to the 9th have been received. The American Consul there had joined the insurgents, and turned over his office to another person. The insurgents hold Tunas, and have many Spanish prisoners.

The wife of General Dulce will soon leave for Spain.

HAVANA, Feb. 17—Dulce still continues active measures for the suppression of the insurrection. Permission to carry arms has been revoked, and all arms are ordered to be delivered up to the government within four days.

The government has received intelligence of a rising in the vicinity of Matanzas. The Rebels number over three hundred men, and the greatest alarm prevailed there.

Senor Castillo, the Director of the Savings Bank, has been arrested, and the police are searching for other wealthy and suspected men.

HAVANA, Feb. 16—The United States Consul having applied for passports for naturalized citizens, the latter was arrested and the Consul was informed that the government could not recognize his right to apply for passports. The Consul has telegraphed to Washington asking for prompt intercession of the government to protect its citizens and in case of refusal tendering his resignation.

LAIRN—General Dulce released a native of Cuba, who was arrested yesterday, on producing his American naturalization papers.

The principal American residents in Cienfuegos applied for a war vessel for their protection. An answer was returned that it was impossible to send them one at present.

The city of Havana is, practically, in a state of siege. General Dulce has been urged to formally declare a state of siege, but is as yet disinclined. He, however, may issue a proclamation to that effect after the expiration of the term of amnesty. Cubans are applying daily to be permitted to take refuge on board the flag-ship Contocook, in case trouble should break out in the city and their lives be threatened.

Admiral Hoff has consented to take American residents to Key West.

An engineer employed on a plantation in the jurisdiction of San Antonio, has arrived here. He reports that a party of insurgents, three hundred strong, had invaded that district. The plantation hands fled panic struck, and the work on the estates had ceased.

The plantation engineers have also fled hither from the Vueta Abile region and other parts of the island, fearing that they may be impressed into the military service.

A letter from Trinidad, dated 13th inst., says the Cubans have raised the standard of revolt everywhere, and have destroyed the telegraph lines and stopped the mails.

A despatch from Neuvas, dated the 11th inst., reports that a banditti are pillaging the estates in the country. On the 7th inst., a detachment of troops marched from Neuvas to Niquel Buco, burned the town and returned the next day, having lost twenty killed, wounded and prisoners.

The insurgents firmly held their ground in the vicinity of the town. The negroes are wandering about the country without restraint. There are many Spaniards in the insurgent ranks. At Puerto Principe provisions are scarce, and the inhabitants are threatened with famine. The roads below Puerto Principe and Neuvas are impassable, owing to heavy rains. A hundred soldiers are sick in the hospital at Neuvas.

HAVANA, Feb. 17—Transports arrived in the harbor, today, with reinforcements of regular troops from Spain.

The number of arrests for political causes are daily increasing. Several officials have been thrown into prison on suspicion of revolutionary proclivities. Engagements between the troops and the rebels are reported to have taken place near Trinidad, Cienfuegos and Esperanza Santo.

The Diario states that the insurgents near Sagua la Grande are completely surrounded by government troops, and will be compelled to surrender.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—A special despatch, dated Havana, Feb. 17, says, the second telegraph cable