

THIS SIDE THE OCEAN.

Nothing of much consequence has transpired concerning the Cuban insurrection, the last week. A most inhuman edict for the slaughter of all who do not submit themselves, has been promulgated as the action of the government, but it lacks confirmation. The revolutionary party are now said to have pronounced in favor of annexation to the United States.—