THE TERSEY JOURNAL 8-28-84 Onego Suspect Cleis 3-Vectient

NEW YORK A Cuban exile was sentenced yesterday to five years in prison for criminal contempt of court after being we suspected by authorities as the triggerman in two murders connected to the Omega 7 anti-

Castro terrorisf group.

Pedro Remon, 39, of Miami refused to testify before a federal grand jury probing eight years of bombings and murders for which Omega 7 claimed responsibility

Assistant U.S. Attorney, William J. Schwartz filed court papers charging that Eduardo. Arocena, who is the suspected mastermind behind the violent activities of Omega 7, told the FBI ahat Remon served as the triggerman in two machine gun murders.

Arocena is currently being tried in U.S. District Court in New York on 26 counts that include first-degree murder, attempted murder, conspiracy, racketeering and perjury.

charged Remon with teh two murders because of a lack of a lack of evidence. Arocena has refused to testify against Remon as a government witness.
