"He that has much to do will do something wrong, and of that wrong must suffer the consequences; and if it were possible that he should always act rightly, yet when such numbers are to judge of his conduct, the bad will censure and obstruct him by malevolence, and the good sometimes by mistake."—SAMUEL JOHNSON.

PREFACE.

THE DIRECTORY for the present year contains 152,825 names.

It is just three-quarters of a century since the first number of the New York Directory was published by David Franks, the originator of the work, and the present is the seventy-fifth volume which has been issued; during that time New York, with the brief intermission of two years, when the United States and Great Britain were at war, has continued to increase in population and wealth, unchecked by the visitation of pestilence or the occurrence of commercial disasters. The Empire City recovered with a bound from the effects of the war of 1812, and experienced no diminution of prosperity during the brief war with Mexico. A check to the growth and prosperity of the metropolis of the New World from civil war might have been anticipated, although a rebellion in our country was what no one could have foreseen or even dreaded as a possible calamity. Yet civil war is upon us; a rebellion of gigantic proportions has been sprung upon the country, the wickedest and most causeless war that has ever been waged by civilized men; and it is not to be expected that the heart of the nation will escape damage from the monstrous and unnatural outbreak.

Last year the DIRECTORY contained 150,303 names. Owing to the secession movement of the Cotton States, a diminution of this number might have been expected, but the present year shows an increase of 2,522 names. The grass that was to grow in Broadway when South Carolina seceded, has not yet begun to sprout, and the great artery of the city is as full of life and as plethoric as it has ever been.

In 1860, we had fully recovered from the effects of the great commercial revulsion of 1857, and now we have but begun to feel the consequences of the secession of the Cotton States. The full effects of this disastrous movement upon the trade of this city cannot now be anticipated, but it will not be so serious as it has been estimated by some. For, if the war should be continued several years, it will be the means of sending to New York a vast amount of shipping business which has heretofore been transacted in the chief ports of the South, which are now suffering from a rigid blockade. Since the present Emperor of France assumed the reins of Government, Paris has greatly increased in splendor; the value of property there has more than quadrupled; its prosperity has been in every way increased; yet France has during the time gone through two most costly wars, and entered upon a scheme of military expenditure to which our own country will not, probably, even make an approach. In the view, therefore, of the war in which the country is now unhappily involved, we need not indulge in any misgivings as to the future of the city of New York.

The DIRECTORY will be found this year as full of compact and reliable information as at any previous time, and each year has added its experiences, and enabled the Compiler to perfect his system for collecting the names of the inhabitants of the city, so that greater value may be imparted to it, while its cost to the purchaser shall not be enhanced, though the cost of its production has greatly increased.

A vast fund of interesting, and, in many respects, valuable information, may be obtained by an intelligent analysis of the contents of this collection of individual names. Mr. Bo ditch, of Boston, has written a most interesting volume on Suffolk surnames, being nothing more, in fact, than a collection of the odd names in one county of the Bay State. But what an infinite fund of amusement of a similar character does the NEW YORK CITY DIRECTORY offer for a similar volume! It may be a subject of some importance to know what are the relative predominance of the initial letters of the inhabitants of this city, and for this reason we have been at the pains to ascertain how many there are ranged under each letter of the alphabet. Of the whole number of surnames contained in the present volume, there are under the letter

A, 3,566 names.	J, 2,771 names.	S, 15,320 names.
B, 14,603 "	K, 6,610 "	T, 4,485 "
C, 11,578 "	L, 7,188 "	U, 425 "
D, 8,396 "	M, 17,450 "	V, 2,054 "
E, 2,663 "	N, 2,419 "	W, 9,491 "
F, 6,667 "	O, 2,880 "	X, 5 "
G, 6,955 "	P, 5,424 "	Y, 489 "
H, 12,329 "	Q, 501 "	Z, 468 "
I, 541 "	R, 7,547 "

Making the grand total of 152,825 names.

ELIE CHARLIER'S
PROTESTANT FRENCH INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG GENTLEMEN,
Boarding and Day School, Classical and Commercial,
Nos. 48 & 50 EAST 24th STREET,

NEAR MADISON PARK, BETWEEN 4TH AND LEXINGTON AVENUES.

THE building occupied by this Institution was built for a school. Three years ago, at an expense of many thousand dollars, the whole establishment was refitted, and eighteen months ago a gymnasium and bowling alley were added. Fifteen Teachers, besides myself and the Teacher of Gymnastics, are now connected with this Institution: 7 Americans, 5 French, 2 German, 1 Spanish. As heretofore, I will devote to it all my time and energy, and, surrounded as I am with excellent Teachers, and all the resources presented by a large city, I will do my utmost to continue to deserve the confidence and esteem of my pupils' parents. Pupils, in a limited number, are received as boarders. There is but one table for pupils, Teachers, and the Director's family.

Although this Institution bears the name of French Institute, the other branches are taught most carefully, and the rank occupied by many of my pupils IN COLLEGE can be given as a proof of my assertion. In ENGLISH STUDIES, COMMERCIAL Arithmetic, Bookkeeping, etc., I am ready to compare my pupils with those of any other school; it is evidently my interest to continue the same course. The FRENCH is the language spoken at large in the School; in the common intercourse of things, pupils are obliged to SPEAK it, the only way to acquire it in a foreign country.

OBSERVATIONS.—According to the European system, pupils do not have "recitations," but LESSONS. They recite, and learn how to learn. During school hours, each pupil has a certain lapse of time allowed him to prepare his lessons, during which time he can receive advice in regard to all the difficulties he may meet with. Thus, he is taught how to study in the most effective way. It is a rule with my assistants and myself to accustom our pupils to use their powers of reflection and of reasoning throughout the course of their studies. We do not ask them to work beyond their powers, but require strictly the performance of their tasks; in a word, we wish them to exert themselves conscientiously, in order that they may become men of cultivated minds and of sound judgment.

Complete obedience, cheerful and prompt obedience, truth in every thing, and work—such are my rules. I shall not fail to enforce them, even if I have to dismiss any pupil refusing compliance with them, or exerting an evil influence in the school. The classes in my Institution are public, and may be visited at all times by the parents or guardians of the pupils.

THE ACADEMIC YEAR, 1861-'62, will extend from the 17th of September to the end of June, divided, for the payments, into two sessions of twenty weeks each. All bills payable in advance, semi-annually. Pupils are charged for the entire Academic year, except new pupils, who are charged from the date of their admission to the end of the school year.

Hours of attendance for Day Scholars.—From 8.55 A.M. till 3 P.M. (with recess of half an hour). In the Primary Department pupils, if desired, may leave at 2 P.M., or even at 12 M.

A weekly report of the attendance, deportment, and proficiency of the pupil, is sent to his parents.

Terms for Day Scholars:—Preparatory Department, $100 a year.
General School:—$150, $200, and $250, according to age.
Terms to Boarders:—$450 and $500.

For all details, and further information, see the Prospectus of the School.

EACH PIANO-FORTE GUARANTEED.

ESTABLISHED 1834.

The principal professors and performers of this country have testified to the superior excellence of the "Dunham Pianos."

JOHN B. DUNHAM would intimate that the wide-spread reputation his Instruments have achieved, is the result of the substantial model of manufacture, requiring no form of "Medal Presentation" to prove their excellence. For superior quality of tone, workmanship, and durability, they are not to be surpassed,—rarely equalled.
