

---

A Faithful Slave.—Charles, a body servant of Captain Henry Persons, of the Third Georgia Cavalry, was captured with his master and offered his freedom by the Abolitionists. He refused to leave his master, returned with him when his regiment were paroled, and maintained his integrity to the last. He died a few days since in Tallahassee, of congestive chill.

---