

A Yankee Prisoner Captured.—SAMUEL GRAY, a Yankee prisoner who had escaped from Macon, Ga., was captured near Turner's Ferry, on the Chattahoochee River, about eight miles from Atlanta, by Mr. D. R. TURNER, of Cobb county. It was through information given to Mr. TURNER by a faithful negro man named Jim, the property of Mr. JAS. L. MASON, of Fulton county, that this Yankee prisoner was caught.
