Democratic and Liberal Republican

Conventions Yesterday.

The Hybrid County Ticket

Pursuant to calls issued by the duly constituted authorities, the Liberal Republicans and Democrats of Hamilton County met in separate conventions yesterday to make nominations for the election which occurs in October next.

The Democratic County Convention.

The county convention was called to order by Horation Genguitus Brewster, Chairman of the County Executive Committee, and, on motion of Alex. Long, Robert Christy was elected temporary Chairman. On taking the chair, Mr. Christy delivered himself as follows:

Executive Communication of the Communication of the therefore acknowledge the control of your organization to proceed toward the perfection of your organization by selecting the necessary recording officers." [Applause.]

The Hon. Howard Douglass, of Mt. Auburn, was then elected Vice-President with some dissenting voices. W. T. Bishop was chosen Secretary, and N. Hong, and the property of the control of the first property of the p Convention. e motion prevailed, and the Chair appointed rs. Win. Pugh, Robert A. Johnson, Howard Doug-Alex. Long, Col. Len. A. Harris, and I. M. Jorss such committee.

R. B. Bradford then took the stand, and read the wine letter:

Dr. R. B. Bradford then took the stand, and read the following letter:
"STATE DENOCRATIC COMMITTEE PROME OF OHIO,
"DOCTOP R. B. BRADFORD—Dear Sir: The action of the Domocracy of Hamilton County at the approachment of the Domocracy of Hamilton County at the approachment of the Domocracy of Hamilton County at the approachment of the Domocracy of Hamilton County at the state. It is the general belief that a judicious course, by which the elements of opposition to Republican misrule may be brought into harmonious, active co-operation will accure such success that will surely control the result in anxiety, and you being a member of the Domocratic State Central Committee, we deem it not out of place to urge upon your attention some considerations that you should impress upon our friends in your city and committee of the Domocratic of the Union, in accepting the Clina."

anxiety, and you being a member of the Democratic State Central Committee, we deem it not out of place to urge upon your attention some considerations that you should impress upon our Irlends in your city and "The Democracy of the Union, in accepting the Cindman in Justice of the World a devotion to the country unparalleled in the history of political parties; and it is equally true that licen party, denouncing its corruption, and tendering the hand of friendahlp to the Democracy in the great work of reform, the Liberals have given evidence of their manly independence and particile implies, engite hand of friendahlp to the Democracy in the great work of reform, the Liberals have given evidence of their manly independence and particile implies, engitting them to like admiration. But Libs union, secure us the blessings of good government, must be treated as binding, and to be sustained and carried out in good faith in every locality in every State. It is alone by such co-operative effort in the former that it can be made available in the latter. It is alone by such co-operative effort in the former that it can be made available in the latter. It can be made available in the latter. Use the plant of the property of the present in Ohio. What, then, is the plain duty of our party in the city and county? Manifestly to meet the Liberals in the same spirit of generous confidence and self-ancrifice that adopted Creekey and Brown as our let every Democrat labox zealously for its consummation. Laying his individual aspirations and preference upon the alart of the common good, let lim, for the present, look only to the means whereby access is that in the Queen City of the West, the act of intelligence and wealth, having wast interests at atake, the great issues of the day were lost sight of and put in loopardy lina accannible for the offices. On the confidence and wealth, having wast interests at atake, the great issues of the day were lost sight of and put in loopardy lina accannible for the offices. On the confidence and ble. To secure that aid, Democrats must so act be worthy of its deposition of the Liberals to be worthy of its deposition of the Liberals to you in the proper spirit, and if all are animated, and work together with heart, head, and handle make the common ing which shall do most to advance the common ing which shall do most to advance the common in, and a lasting union of those who achieved it, and a lasting union of those who achieved it we inture. If we should be deceived, and out should prove untrue, of which we would not for stant entertain a suspicion, the Democracy car old themselves with the conviction that they have their duty.

omorther duty.

"With great respect, your obedient servant,"

"With great respect, your obedient servant,"

"Gots G. Thomrson, Chairman.

"E. B. ESHEIMAN, SCECETARY,"

"AND LAYMAN,"

"M. A. DOUGHERTY,

"J. RENNIARD,

"Executive Committee."

The committees on Credentials and Resolutions were then appointed, and the convention adjourned, to meet at Mozart Hall at 2 o'clock.

meet at Mozart Hall at 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention was called to order by Robert Christy, East, temporary Chairman. They work of scating the delegates then commenced, but they were so full of enthusiasm that not even the stemtorian voice of W. J. O'Nell, Eag., who took the post of talking Secretary by common consent, could bring them to a proper seems of their position, and upward here to the proper seems of their position, and upward here to the committee on Permanent Organization, reported the following permanent officers:

President, L. A. Harris. Vice-Presidents, Howard Douglass, Samuel E. Hunt, James Bugber, Vanakin President, L. A. Harris. Vice-Presidents, Howard Douglass, Samuel E. Hunt, James Bugber, Vanakin President, L. A. Harris. Vice-Presidents, Howard Douglass, Samuel E. Hunt, James Bugber, Vanakin President, Co. Harris, on taking the chair, spokes as follows:

"GENTLENIEN OF THE CONVENTION: Of course I feel and desire to express my acknowledgment for this bonor. It is not necessary regard to the issues of this campaign. As I understand the question now, it is this, and this alone: We have made the issues of this campaign. As I understand the question now, it is this, and this alone: We have meet in Hamilton County as Democrats, perfectly willing and anxious to act with the Liberal Republican party of this county in the direction of reform cuntry, that we desire to subserve. (Cheers, I if any man puts up his claim against what we believe to be right, let us tell him to get out of the way at once. (Cheers, I bill in to get out of the way at once. (Cheers, I bill in the get out of the way at conce. (Cheers, I bill in the period of the conference committee has been appointed by the "Acconference committee has been appointed by the "Accon think we can do.

"A conference committee has been appointed by the Democratic party; that committee has met with the Liberal Kepublicans, and the Liberal Kepublicans, and the Liberal Kepublicans, and the Liberal Kepublicans, the regard to the nominations." (Applause.)

Enoch T. Carson then took the stand and said:

"Min. PRESENDENT AND GENTIANIER OF THE CON-

EDOCH T. CATSON then took the stand and said:
"Mill. PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMIN OF THE CONVENTION: I had the honor to be appointed on the committee on conference, on behalf of the Liberal Republicans, in the convention this morning. They convention. They adopted a report; that report was submitted to the Liberal Republican Convention, and unnimously adopted by that convention. Lapplaces,
We shall now a wait the action of your convention
Mr. William Pugh, chairman of the committee on conference from the Democratic Convention, reported as follows:

We shall now we wait the action of your convention. Mr. William Pugh, chairman of the committee on Mr. William Pugh, chairman of the committee on conference from the Democratic Convention, reported as follows:

"To the Democratic County Convention."

"Your committee, appointed to confer with the committee of the Republican Liberal Convention, desire to report as follows:

"That they met said committee, and that the utmost fairness and liberally was manifested by the land complete interchange of option, the following offices were apportioned to the Liberal Republicans:

"Elector, First District.

"Congressman, Second District.

"Congressman, Second District.

"Congressman Second District.

"Congressman Second District.

"Your committee congratulate the convention on the haipy and ampicious event. They believe it to be a hartinger of glorious victor. Alex. Long then arose. and stated that he had a unbority report to submit. The announcement was received with cheers, hissos, and groans. A delegate moved that the report by read. Another moved that it be laid on the table. Dr. Bradford hoped the report would be respectfully for business, and we don't want any minority report; we have no use for it."

"The almouncement was received with cheers, hissos, and groans. A delegate moved that the report bare here for human the proper to the part of the laboration of the composed of delegates exclusively from that district,

"CINCINNATI, Aug. 14."

"ALIXANDER LONG.

The report was received with hisses and cheers, and, on motion of Robert A. Johnson, was laid on the table. On motion of Howard Douglass, the following committee was appointed to notify the Liberal Republican Jordan, and Thomas Logal.

J. H. Baumer, a feeble youth, these mounted the platform, and attempted to read the report of the Committee on Resolutions. His attempt was received with derisive laughter, and probably not five delegates heard the report, which was as follows:

gates heard the report, which was as follows:

"Resolved, That the Democracy of Hamilton County, in convention assembled, do warmly approve and cordisily indorse the principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention at Ballmore; that we recognize in them the cardinal principles for which we have always contended, and that are now applicable "Resolved, That we nustain the nominations made at Baltimore of Horace Greeley, of New York, for "Resolved, That we nustain the nominations made at Baltimore of Horace Greeley, of New York, for President, and B. Gratz Brown, of Missouri, for Vice-President; that they are men of eminent ability and long civic experience, of tried honesty and integrity, and that we have every confidence that, if chosen, they are causallah "Internal relations that have been so long sundered between the North and South." Resolved. That we indores the State ticket headed by the name of Gen. Aquilla Wiley, for Secretary of State, and that we pledge to that ticket, and to the ticket to be nominated this day in the First and Second Congressional distriction.

"Resolved. That we extend to the Liberal Republicans, who, like us, sustain the nominations of Greeley and Brown, the right hand of fellowship as brebtren engaged in a common cause; that they are entitled to great honor for their noble independence, and that we will find a common cause; that they are mitted to great honor for their noble independence, and that we will find that in the future, as in the present, they will find the find the future, as in the present, they will find the find the find the present, they will find the find the present of the sustain country before party and if need be in that behalf, to sacrifice the pride of party organization to the find the find the find the find the party organization to the find the fi behalt, to sacrifoe the pride of party organization to it. Resolved, That we are in lavor of county reform and maintenance of the county reform fee and salary bill adopted by the last Legislature; that we are for the strictest economy in our county exponditures; and that we piedge the influence of our organization to be made and the strictest and the strictest and shadi; and that the candidates for Commissioner and shadi; and that the candidates for Commissioner and shadi; and that the contest is particularly in the stricted to act in accordance with the spirit of this resolution."

The convention took the platform in faith and adopted it.
Col. W. B. Cassilly moved that the convention proceed to the nomination of officers, commencing with the highest. Carried.

For this office were nominsted Geo. W. Ziegier, Eugene Daylor, Paul Beinlein, Robert Hill, John N. McDonnell, J. H. Wallman, Won. Holmes, Joseph Wakeman. The first ballot resulted: Ziegler, 185; Daylor, 72; Reinlein, 30; Hill, 23; McDonnell, 19; Wallman, 6; Holmes, 3; Wakeman, 18.

Ziegler, 206; Daylor, 128.
Mr. Ziegler was deciared the nominee, and in response to enthusiastic calls, he appeared before the curtain and addressed the convention as follows:
"Mm. PERSIDERT AND GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: I am very thanful for the honor you have conferred on me. [Volces, 'Louder, louder,'] I of the ticket you have nominated to-day has success to the ticket you have nominated to-day."
The next business in order was the nomination of a Coroner.

For this office were nominated: Dr. Geo. A. Do-hert; Dr. F. F. Maley Dr. J. W. Hadlock, Dr. J. B. Stabbier, Dr. Jess The first ballot resulted: Doherty, 106; Maley, 102; Hadlock, 75; Staebler, 19; Owens, 32. No nomina-tion.

Staebler, Dr. Jasso Owens.

Staebler, Dr. Jasso Owens.

Staebler, Dr. Jasso Owens.

The Grat ballot resulted. Doherty, 165; Maley, 102; Honcel, 75; Staebler, 19; Owens, 32. No nominations of the state of the state Level 1 and 1 and

The fourth saint for County commissioner seating as follows: Ridgway, 18; Bowman, 71; Hopper, 25; Mr. Hough was declared the nonline. He appeared in response to voeiferous calls, and spoke as follows: "I am no speaker, but I thank you most cordially for the nonlination, and I will do the best I can to serve you, if elected." [Applause.]

COUNTY PROSECUTION ATTORNEY.

For this office the following were named:
A. B. Champloo, C. W. Gerard, Milton Sater, Patrick McGroarty, R. O. Strong, John N. Hays.
Mr. Gerard's name was withdrawn.
The first bailot resulted as follows: Sater, 146; McGroarty, 48; Strong, 133.
Second bailot—Sater, 146; Strong, 134.
Second bailot—Sater, 146; Strong, 135.
Second bailot—Sater, 146; Strong, 136.
Second bailot—Sater, 146; Strong, 146; Bailot, 146; Bailot, 146; Bailot, 146; Bailot, 146; Bailot, 146; Ba

The county convention then adjourned sine die.

Liberal Republican County Convention.

This convention was called to order at 10 o'clock by Judson Harmon. Irvin B. Wright nominated Mosss F. Wilson for temporary Chairman, and Mr. Wilson was elected. On taking the chair, Mr. Wilson and G. GENYLLMEN OF THE LIBERAK REPUBLICAN CONVENTION: I thank you for the honor you have concirred upon me. I shall not detain you by any extended remarks. Let our proceedings be characterized by good order and unanimity, and let us so act to-day that at the October election we may give an additional impetus to that great movement by which we expect to place Horace Greeley in the presidential chair.

These remarks were appropriately application.

These remarks were appropriately applauded. J.

These remarks were appropriately applicated. J. L. Bogardus was appointed temporary Secretary. COMMITTER OF COMPERENCE.

Mr. C. W. Merrell moved that a committee of conference, to consist of six members, be appointed to confer with the Democratic Convention. Cartor Gazlay moved that the number be ton. Lost. The original motion was carried, and the Chair appointed Irwin B. Wright, Geo. W. Guysl, Chas. Bird, Judson Harmon, E. T. Carson, and Thos. Mullet.

On motion of Dr. Judkins this committee was instructed to you as sarly and often as the conference structed to vote as early and often as the conferencemmittee from the Democratic Convention. committee from the Democratic Convention.

COMMITTERS.

Committees were then appointed on permanent or ganization, credentials, and resolutions, constituted of one from each ward and precinct.

The convention then took a recess until 1 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION. convention resumed its work at 1 o'clock. 'Squire Marckworth, from the Committee on Permanent Organization, presented the following re-

President-Hon. J. L. Keck. Vice-Presidents-John G. Olden, James H. Laws, E. T. Carson. Socretary-J. R. McGarry. Assistant Secretaries-Joseph Moses, Col. Enright, J. L. Bogardus.

The report was adopted. MR. KECK'S SPRECH.
The permanent Chairman was then introduced, and

The permanent Chairman was then introduced, and spoke as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN AND GRNTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: In accepting the position of permanent Chairman of this convention, and assuming its responsibilities, I wish to acknowledge my obligation for the preference shown to me. It may not be one of the duties of the Chair, but you will permit me to say a few plan words to you in my plain way. I Applianse, I you have been delegated to select candidates to be voted for at the Order of the Chair of the Ch cause the nomines for Tresident is not the mas we want. [Loud applause I I hope your work to-day will give satisfaction, and that you will join with all who are willing to join with you in the good work. Thus we will have harmony and success, (Applause.) CREDENTALS.

The Committee on Credentials reported no contested seats, and all the wards and precincts represented (but some of the distant country districts were not represented, and cast no vote during the whole convention). The report was adopted.

The report was adopted.

RESOLUTIONS.

The Committee on Resolutions reported as follows:

Resolved, That we, the Liberal Republicans of Hamilton County, in convention assembled, do declare our strachment to the principles laid down by the Liberal Republican Sational Convention of Coulomath, and republican Sational Convention of Coulomath, and the United States, Honce Greeley, of New York, and B. Gratz Brown, of Missouri.

Resolved, That we recognize in that platform the principles which have aiways been contended for by the Republicans party of the United States, and that principles which have aiways been contended for by the Republicans party of the United States, and that radical kind.

Resolved, That we recognize in that platform the Republicans—Horace Greeley and B. Gratz Brown—we welcome the assistance of men of all other organizations who are in lawy or fortorm in our political actions who are in lawy or fortorm in our political actions who are in lawy or fortorm in our political actions who are in lawy or fortorm in our political actions who are in lawy or feeling and the resolutions.

Resolved, That we carnestly impress upon all Liberal Republicans the importance of the October elections, on account of its moral effect all over the country; that a vote for the State tacket, headed by that gallant one legged solidier, Gen. Wiley, for Secretary of State, and to the candidates selected this day by the Liberal Republicans and Democratic conventions, our most hearty and cordial support.

The resolutions were adopted unanimously.

When this work was accombilabled, the convention hearty and cordial support.

The resolutions were adopted unanimously.

NOTHING TO DO.

NOTHING TO DO.

When this work was accomplished, the convention was without employment. It did not know what it had to do, or whether it had anything to do. That was to be decided by the report of the conference committee, and that committee was not present. A delegate moved to take a recess for fifteen minutes. The motion was lost. Another delegate moved to resolve the convention into a mass meeting to hear a speech from the Chairman of the convention. Mr. Keck, with his blandest manner, said the Chair could not entertain such a motion. The motion was weak carried. But Mr. Olden was not present, and a committee was sent to bring him. While this committee was sent to bring him while this committee was sent to bring him and the table. At a motion was made to send a committee after the conference committee. This was laid on the table. At comply rising impatiently and saying that he didn't want to be kept all day; he understood the conference committee was present, and he wanted to hear remove the motion of the conference committee was present, and he wanted to hear remove the motion of the conference committee was present, and he wanted to hear the conference committee was present, and he wanted to hear the conference committee was present, and he wanted to hear them that Mr. Olden had been the conference committee was present, and he wanted to hear the conference committee was present, and he wanted to hear them that Mr. Olden had been the conference committee was present, and he wanted to hear the conference committee was present, and he wanted to hear the conference committee was present, and he wanted to hear the conference committee was present, and he wanted to hear the conference committee was present, and he was the conference committee was present, and he was the conference committee was closed his remarks with a single sentence more.

THE BARGAIN.

Mr. Irvin B. Wright, from the committee of conference, reported an agreement by which the two conventions were to divide the work of nominating cannels of the sentence of the

IN A HURRY.

Carter Gazlay excitedly moved that the convention proceed at once and nominate Congressman and elector. The Chair decided that the county convention could not nominate these candidates.

Mr. W. S. Bacon moved that the delegates from the Second District proceed to that the county nominate manual m

IN A HURRY.

Another recess was taken, during which the work of electioneering progressed with great vigor. Outside perties were more busy, it possible, than delectioneers of conventions, G. M. D. Bless, the man whose mission it is to make a public appearance solely on the floor of a nominating convention in the capacity of instructor-general to the delegates—it was especially interesting to see this guestioneast cally interesting to see this guestion and the support of the second control of pictions for the warmth with which they a la, the proximity of the respective mouth of the far of the other, and the number and gra-signals made to each other after they separate HEARING FROM THE OTHER CONVENTION.

HEANING FROM THE OTHER CONVENTION.

After a long time spent in this way the convention ras called to order, and Mr. Howard Douglass appears and the convention of the convention of the communication of the communicated formally the information that the Democratic Convention had, with almost notice unanimity, adopted the reports of the conference committee. This announcement seemed to make the delegate glad; they cheered vigorously.

WORK—PROBATE JUDGE.

M. F. Wilson moved that the convention proceed to nomination of candidates in the following order: Probate Judge, County Surveyor. Director Country, Control of the Convention to be necessary and convention be necessary to be necessary to be necessary to the convention to necessary the convention to be necessary.

ce.
le second ballot resulted thus: Tilden, 75; Peck, Hunter, 34; Throop, 15; Miner, 9; Moore, 7.
re was no choice, and Moore's name was dropped.
le third ballot resulted: Tilden, 95; Peck, 69;
ter, 29: Throop, none; Miner, none. Still no cs.

The third ballot resulted: Thison, 20, August 29: Through none; Miner, none. Still no choice.

The fourth ballot resulted: Tilden, 110; Peck, 81.

Mr. Tilden was declared nominated, and from a chair in the back part of the hall expressed his joy in tones so low that they could not be heard on the platform. COUNTY SUNFEOR.

For this office 8. P. Bowles, Gen. W. G. Halpin, C. Y. Bechman, and J. W. Gibbert were put in nomination. The first ballot resulted thus: Bowles, 85; Halpin, 07; Bechman, 11; Gilbert, 30.

ALMOST A ROW.

tion. The first ballot resulted thus: flowles, 85; Halpin, 67; Bechman, 11; Gilbert, 80.

When the Sixth Ward was called the vote was chalenged by a delegate. The chairman of that ward retorted that two men who were not residents of the ward at all had been attempting to vote. The men castered that two men who were not residents of the ward at all had been attempting to vote. The men castered that were handling by the Sergenta LATAM. But a worse confusion was shortly raised by an inquiry proposed by C. W. Merrell. Mr. Merrell wanted to know if Mr. Halpin was a Republican. At this Jack Connoily and James W. Fitzgereld became greatly exceeded to the work of the connoily and James W. Fitzgereld became greatly exceeded the connoils of the connoils and James were the control of the connoils and the connoils of the conn answer that by its work it on an analysis would be a proper one, and an analysis order. Fitzgerald—I will answer. ["Order: order!" from a score of throats. "He's not a delegate." "Order!" In the midst of these shouts Mr. Fitzgerald mounted his position in a chair. The Chair said this matter required no speech. It only wanted an answer to the question.

required no specci. It only wanted as a now well equestion.
Fitzgeraid—Mr. Chairman, I have an answer. I can say Mr. Halpin is—Fitzgeraid—Mr. Chairman, I have an answer. I can say Mr. Halpin is—Fitzgeraid—Mr. Chair called on the convention to proceed with the Chair called on the convention to proceed with the ballot. By this time it occurred to Jack Connolly that he would say something, and he managed to state that he knew that Gen. Halpin was a Republican. The ballot proceeded and resulted in the nomination of Bowles by the following vote: Bowles, 129; Halpin, 64; Gilbert, 8.

DIEECOR COUNTY INFIRMARY.

the nomination of Bowles by the holder of Bowles, 12; Halpin, 64; Gilbert, 8.

DIRECTOR COUNTY INFIRMARY.

For this office three candidates were named: J. F. Lakeman, James Maloney, and Joreph Scherer. The first bailor resulted in the choice of Mr. Lakeman, sollows: Lakeman, 143; Maloney, 88; Scherer, 7.

When the result was announced, a delegate called out, plied that the Republican who caked auch a question argued binned! unknown. Mr. Lakeman mounted the rostrum and assured the convention that, if elected, he would attend to the interests of the infrarary without regard to party, color, race, or sex.

WHAT NEXT?

WHAT NEXT?

The work of the convention was now done, but the workmen were not certain about 11. A motion was now done, but the workmen were not certain about 12. A motion was now done, the state of th lar adjournment.

First District Democratic Convention.

The delegates to the First District Democratic Convention met in Turner Hall at 10 o'clook, and were called to order by John A. Peter, Vice-President of the Hamilton County Executive Committee, and, on his motion, Col. C. W. Woolley was chosen temporary Chairman, and J. S. Brown, Secretary.

On motion of W. H. Pugh, the following committee was appointed to confer with a like committee from the Second District convention and the Liberal Republican Convention in relation to the joint action with the Liberals in nominating a ticket: W. H. Pugh, Robert Christy, Howard Douglass, and Robert A Johnston.

After transacting some further business of no pub-

At Mozert Hall.

The convention met again after the adjournment of be county convention, and was called to order by Convention, and was called to order by Convention, and was called to order by Convention, it was decided to nominate, first, a candidate for Congress for the long term, and the tollowing were maned; Col. O. J. Dodds, Milton Sayler, Judge I. C. Collina. The first ballot resulted: Dodds, S5; Sayler, 82; Collina, 80.

Pending the third ballot, Col. Dodds took the floor and said:

Coll. Posco.

"MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: I am exceedingly gratified to those of my friends who have thus far supported me, but if this contest was to keep on in the way it has been we could be a tax upon your patience, which I for one do not wish to ask of my friends. I think there is a time, and there are occasions like this, when It is proper that, however much of personal ambition a man may have to occupy a position, still it is his duty, for the good of the cause, to secure harmony, to waive he own preferences and his own ambition, and give way for the general good. Gentleuen, I, thank you for the good ballot resulted: Sayler, 9; Collins, 70. Mr. Sayler was declared the nominee, and, being leudly called for, he appeared, and spoke as follows:

Mr. Sayler was declared the nomines, and, being loudly called for, he appeared, and spoke as follows:

MILTON SAYLER'S SPEECH.

"Gentlement of the Convention: I understand perfectly well that it is entirely too late to attempt to make you a speech, and I will say to you, gentlemen of the several wards and townships, that between this and the Stilay of October, you shall all hear from and the Stilay of October, you shall all hear from and the Stilay of October, you shall all hear from Grunder had a been said unfortunate—as to be elected to Congress. To-night, geutionen, I can nomination. I have had the complement paid me by the Democratic party several times to be put in nomination. I have had the complement paid me by the Democratic party several times to be put in nomination. The neither they nor myself expected that anybody could be alected. [Laughter and choers.]

"To-night I am thrice grateful to have that compliment paid me, when both you and myself believe that Col. W. B. Cassilly them over d that the convolution nominate Judge Collins for the short term by acclamation. Pending the vote Judge Collins took the stand, and said:

"M. F. [ESERDENT AND GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENhand, and said:

"Mik. Pressibent and Gentlement of the Convention." It is a self"Mik. Pressibent and Gentlemen of the Convention. I return my most slocere thanks to those personal friends of mine who have adhered to me so eathusistically in this contest. I most heartily rejoice in the success of my most excellent friend, the Hon.
Mitton Sayler. I know that if it had been the pleasure of this convention to nominate me for the pealwould most cordially and heartily have supported me in the canvass. He needs no assurance from me and

In the canvass. He needs no assurance from me and my friends that he will receive a cordial and hearty support from us." (Cheers)
Robert A. Johnson then moved that Col. Dodds be nominated for the short term by acclamation. No vote was staten on the motion, and the following. Jones, and Judge I. C. Collins. Col. Jones' name was withdrawn before the vote was taken, which resulted as follows: Dodds. 91; Collins, 81.
Col. Dodds was declared the nominee for the short term. In response to repeated calls he spoke as follows:

COL. DODDS' SECOND SPECCH.

"GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: When I withdrew from the former contest, I had no idea that my naine would be presented for the short term. But when I was in the army I learned this lesson, that a fune any duty cheerd, and as it has plaused the Democracy of the First District to name me as their representative for the short term, I accept the honor that you have conferred upon me, and pledge you my word that I will tamp out more grass going over this county electioneering for this ticket than sny other candidate that has been nominated to than sny other candidate that has been nominated to day. If you can get any candidate on the ticket to proceed the county electioneering for this ticket the other gentlemen who have been named for this position has been pleasant in all respects. I would as soon serve under the banners of Sayler as any others. I gave my indunence two years acro to assist in Saylor's election, and I propose to do ten-loid more this year in the same direction. Gentlemen, I can only thank you, and promise you on my part a most vigorous and Col. Dodds second speech was received with appleaue, and at its conclusion the convention adjourned.

First District Liberal Republican Convention.
This convention was called to order on it e east side of the hall, while the Second District convention received similar treatment on the west side. It only proceeded so far as to name a Chairman, Irviu B-Wright, and to name a Secretary, J. E. Jones, when it took a recess until the Second District ended its work.
THE ELECTOR.

proceeded so far as to name a Chairman, Irvin BWright, and to name a Secretary, J. E. Jones, when it took a recess until the Second District ended its work.

THE ERCTOR.

On ceasembling the Second District ended its work.

THE ERCTOR.

On ceasembling the Second District ended its work.

The Second District ended its work.

The tailor sease the second on an elector. Flamon Bail, ir, Wm. Stoms, Geo. Stribey, and Jason Evans.

The bailor seaulted; Eall, 35; Stribey, 12; Stoms, 24; Evans, sone. Ball was declared elected, and was called to the platform, when he said this compliment was ontirely unexpected. He was thankful for it, and plate the second of the county ticket as well as the election of the county ticket as well as the election of the county ticket as well as the election of the county convention at the end of the recess taken by that body. The opportunity to adjourn that lost was not recovered. The poportunity to adjourn that lost was not recovered. The poportunity to adjourn that lost was not recovered the second of the recess taken by that body. The opportunity to adjourn that lost was not recovered the second of the recess taken by that body. The opportunity to adjourn that lost was not recovered the second of the recess taken by that body. The opportunity to adjourn that lost was not recovered the second of the recess taken by that be one of the control of the second of the recess taken by that be not not the second of the recess that he are the second of the second of the recess that he are the second of the second of the recess that he are not the second of the purpose of driving this vess out of office, and for the purpose of driving this vess out of office, and for the purpose of driving this vess out of office, and for the purpose of receiving the country. For multing to fothe purpose of driving this vess out of office, and for the purpose of recei

Second District Liberal Republican Convention

Second District. Liberal Republican Convention. When the county convention took a recess, after having made its mominations, the Second District delegates assembled in the west side of the hall, and organized by the appointment of James H. Laws as Chairman and J. L. Bogardau as Secretary. Mr. Laws as Chairman and J. L. Bogardau as Secretary. Mr. Laws as this constituents quiet. In the exercise of this labor, he did deleter ende over a body that would not obey the Chair; that is, he meant acquiescence by trying to keep order. When order was restored the names of candidates were presented. They were J. L. Keck, H. B. Banning, Bolth. Hossa, and Encoln this work has been applied to the product of the could not accept the non-asying that it was the portant that the best man in the district be named.

lt. He was in favor of the nominee of the cenven-tion. [Cheers.] THE BALLOTS.

tion. [Cheers.]

THE BALLOTS.

The first ballot wis taken with the following result: Kech, 44; Banning 61, Hosse, 15. There was no choice, and fir. Hosse's name was withdrawn. The second ballot resulted; Kech, 45; Banning, 66. Banning was declared the nominee, and a committee was appointed to notify him of the nominations, and a produced to notify him of the nomination was appointed to notify him of the nomination and time to adjourn, after nominating its elector, Mr. Keck called the county convention to order, and introduced Gen. H. B. Banning was thus obliged to girthaunilar acceptable of the second produced the county convention to order, and introduced Gen. H. B. Banning was thus obliged to girthaunilar acceptable with the second produced that the second convention for the second convention for the second convention for the second convention for the honor. It would be unjust to say more, because the day's work had been set, on the principle that the war is over, and that its cruelies should be forgotten, must succeed. [Applause.] The policy of general amostly, so long advocated by that eminent stateman, Horace Greeley, was being accepted by must of all principles and convention for this honor, and saking you to be as zealous in the future as you have already been in the progress of reform, I again that you.

and asking you we have been in the progress of renorm, and thank you." [Cheers]
This speech was followed by the proceedings of the county convention, whereby the district convention was preduded from voting for an adjournment. How will these three conventions feed when they scale to the truth that they are all in full force and existence, not having been adjourned at all?

Second District Democratic Convention.

Second District Democratic Convention.

The delegates to the Democratic Congressional Convention of the Second District assembled it a low-troom of the Second District assembled it as low-troom of the Second District assembled for the Congression of the Democratic Executive Committee. Several nominations were made for Chairman of the convention, but Mr. Brew-ster failed to recognize anyone until a delegate named Aleck Long for that position. He then put the motion on Last homination, which was declared earth of the Congress of the Second Congress, but the suggestion was received with such violent and unanimous cries of "No," "No," that no more was heard of it. Ward. I. H. Baumer, jr., of the Twenty-second Congress, but the suggestion was received with such violent and unanimous cries of "No," "No," that no more was heard of it. Ward. I. H. Baumer, jr., of the Twenty-second was the committee of conference with the Liberal Republicans, to be made to the county convention. The motion prevailed. W. H. Pugh, trom the First District, attempted to amounce the action of that district in appointing a committee of conference, with a view to having a similar committee applicated with a view to having a similar committee applicated places of the condition of the condition of the work of the work of the condition of the district in appointing a committee of conference with the second of the condition of the condition of the district in appointing a committee of conference with the condition of the condition