

More Arms Seized by Police

Brig. Gen. Hernando Hernandez, chief of police, reported last night that police agents had seized an arms cache at a house on Calle 8 No. 62 in San Miguel del Padron.

No one was reported arrested.

The police chief said the arms cache consisted of 6 machineguns, 6 rifles, 30 mortar shells, several pistols, several police and army uniforms and 150,000 cartridges.

He said this cache was related to the recent raids on Calle 7 in Miramar, the one on Obispo and Habana streets in Old Havana and the frustrated attack on the Presidential Palace last March 13.

Police said they are looking for the tenant, whose last name is said to be Alonso.
