LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

One of the international issues of the moment concerns the . . . “recognition or re-establishment of relations with the communist government in Cuba” . . .

There are elements and people who, regardless of the consequences of their statements, advocate friendship and co-existence with the Tyrant of Cuba. This attitude calls for an analysis and a firm and precise statement as well, so that public opinion and those organizations deeply concerned with this matter, will no longer be deceived.

Some time ago it was fashionable to hear voices demanding more serious actions against the interventionist and aggressive regime in Cuba. Very few dared ask for the “recognition” of such an aggressive and totalitarian system.

Nowadays, on the contrary, it is very popular to advocate for “peaceful co-existence” with Fidel and his Marxist-Leninist government.

What has happened to create such a change of attitude? I believe that it is due, basically, to a strange and suicidal international current appeasement and backing down before the communist enemy.

That current has been strengthened and encouraged after the “negotiations” and “understandings” with the communist regimes in China, Vietnam and the Soviet Union, carried on by the government of President Nixon.

It is true that in all eras there have been elements who, because of their naivete or because of their being agents of international communism, have been advocating for the communist regimes, including, of course, also that of Cuba. But it is also true that those same elements were isolated and out of place in a world where the systems were well defined and sided on one hand with freedom and democracy; as against the other, communism and slavery.

Nowadays, it is not so. There is a tremendous confusion and backing down, and, as usual, communism and its agents take advantage --- directly or indirectly --- of those confusing and confused factors in order to profit from them. "Co-existence" and "negotiation" are some of those factors which serve communism so well in its goal of conquest and subduing new countries and peoples.

Sometime ago it was preached that communism should be isolated like a social cancer in order to prevent infection and contamination. Today, certain leaders and statesmen advocate just the opposite policy, namely: to come to an agreement with the enemy and to allow the communist cancer to follow its course enslaving peoples all over the world.

Sometime ago, whoever "agreed" or "negotiated" with communism was considered a traitor. Nowadays, it is said that "the world is changing," and that we must accept the "plurality of ideologies."

What has really happened to bring this change of attitude in certain persons?

The answer is simple: we are witnesses to a back-down which may turn out to be very dangerous indeed to the destiny of the free countries and to the destiny of those who, having lost their freedom, maintain the hopes to regain such freedom some day.

Freedom for the countries oppressed by communism is no longer encouraged.

Messages conveying seriousness of intentions are no longer sent to those peoples who could be, some day, our best allies in the common ideal for the conquest of a more peaceful, more civilized, and more just and progressive world under the symbol of freedom.

Conversations regarding the liberation of China, Vietnam, Cuba, and so many countries oppressed by communism, are no longer heard. Nowadays, we hear of "agreements" and negotiations" with the tyrants of those sacrificed countries.

Nowadays, Communist China is preferred to National China.

Nowadays, it is "co-existence" with Fidel and abandonment of his adversaries, by all means our allies in the democratic and free side.

This international attitude, I assure you, will bring us nothing but bad results. At least, the bad example is already spreading, and those favoring the recognition of Fidel's tyranny did so due to the fact that the regimes of Communist China and North Vietnam had already been recognized.

When a country is considered by other countries as the world leader and is entrusted with their friendship and solidarity, such errors as "negotiations" and "agreements" with the enemy cannot and must not be made, since they will bring about distrust and demoralization.

This is why we see that in the Organization of American States (OAS), a communist regime as that of Salvador Allende in Chile and others which play ball with it --- as the regime in Peru ---, can impose their Marxist objectives with the complicity of some other coward governments, over the true interests of the inter-American system.

It is thus that the American doctrine versus the extra continental powers is defeated and the treacherous "plurality of ideologies" is the winner.

This political thesis will be used to facilitate the infiltration and advancement of the communist imperialism. It means to disregard many years of struggles in order to keep the American continent free of the inhuman communist system.

"Plurality of ideologies" means the acceptance of all the different ideologies maintained by the governments of all the different countries in the world, in spite of the fact that these are communist ideologies and that we are accepting and inviting the enemy to our own home.

This is what was recently discussed by the Organization of American States (OAS), and worse yet, what the Assembly of the Organization of American States (OAS) approved.

Behind this "Trojan Horse" --- one of the schemes of communism---, the recognition and co-existence with the communist regime of Cuba is shamelessly and openly concealed.

The sponsors of such an idea maintain that if President Nixon negotiates and co-exists with the communist regimes of Peking and Hanoi, they can also do the same with the communist regime of Havana!

Here we have the outcome of negotiating with the enemy when one is a world leader.

Every eye is focused on the statements and attitudes assumed by the world leader, and when this leader opens the doors to the enemy, the ones who are waiting slyly to infiltrate themselves through the same way, do so properly justified.

At the very moment in which the Organization of American States (OAS) had to apply the doctrine that says that "communism is not negotiable in this hemisphere" --- a doctrine which was agreed upon by the OAS and which should prevent Marxists regimes as that one of Chile's from being accepted ---, the communist agents come within the American institution to pave the way for the communist tyranny in Cuba to reenter the Organization of American States (OAS).

Such a tremendous cowardice and back out had never been witnessed before!

Fidel has insulted and threatened the countries that form the OAS. However, to the shame of the people of those countries, their leaders and governments give up and kneel down before the proud challenger.

It is hard to imagine how those people can live at ease with their conscience after such a humiliation. Thus, Fidel does not seem to be great because of his courage, but because of the cowardice of his opponents!

These people should know that Fidel will never pardon them nor will he spare their lives simply because they give in to him now. Fidel is not and will never be at peace with anyone. He will keep on with his aggressive policy and his warlike plans for the continent, which, by the way, coincide exactly with the plans of the communist imperialism. This is why Fidel is serving and profiting from this totalitarian system which fits his absolutist character. Fidel would never fit any other system but a totalitarian one, be it whichever it be, and since the communist system is in vogue, he is its most fervent follower and agent!

Before leaving my country I had direct knowledge of Fidel's aggressive plans and how his goal was and it still is, promoting subversion in all Latin American countries so that he could become, in time, the great dictator of each and all of them. He is not satisfied with Cuba and wants to have the whole continent under his dominion. His dreams are as ridiculous as limitless. He works toward the achievement of this goal with tenacity and insistence, characteristics which do not permit him either to change his mentality or his plans.

At the same time when voices were heard asking for the re-establishing of relations with the communist government of Cuba, an armed invasion against the Dominican Republic was leaving from Cuba. Even before that, armed groups had left Cuba heading for Peru, Venezuela, Colombia, Panama, Bolivia. The armed invasion against the last mentioned countries was a tremendous scandal in the whole world since it violated every and all the agreements and treaties in the inter-American system. However, the Organization of American States (OAS) did not apply any of the sanctions called for and backed down instead.

The invasion against Bolivia was directly sponsored by Fidel, who even sent Major Ernesto "Che" Guevara at the head of the group of officers belonging to the Cuban Armed Forces. This was the height of Fidel's interventionist and aggressive policy, which has always been encouraged by the cowardice and indifference of his opponents within the Organization of American States (OAS).

Having this example of demoralization before them, the different administrations of the United States have adopted, in turn, the policy of inaction and abandonment of commitments because they have been either contaminated or subdued by the indifference to the matter shown in other parts of the so-called "free world."

Nevertheless, there remains a fact and that is that the United States of America is the world leader because of circumstances and historical reasons as well; consequently, there is no other alternative to the United States than to fulfill that complicated and difficult role, otherwise, democracy, civilization, and peace will disappear from our planet. And then then it will be too late to migrate either to the moon or to any other planet.

We must defend this world or those of us who cannot live without democracy and freedom shall perish.

I believe that the best way to defend this world --- a historical experience many pretend to ignore --- is by fighting against the communist enemy all over the world.

Communism is a social cancer and as such it has to be prevented from consolidating and spreading its ramifications all over the world. If, instead, negotiations, agreements and co-existence are carried on with communism, its advance towards new territories will be oversimplified. It is true indeed that Cuba is not the only case at present. Now we have the communist problem in Chile and we have Panama coming on this same way by the hand of the ignorant General Torrijos, who is playing the most despicable role of pawn to communist imperialism. Among the communist maneuvers to which General Torrijos has given his ear is the issue of the Panama Canal. This, I say, is something that must be solved within the American system, from nation to nation, taking into consideration and respecting the mutual and legitimate interests of the nations involved, so that justice, true justice, will be made. But enter the communist factor, infiltrated in it by the hand of General Torrijos and Fidel and the problem has become a propaganda against the United States, as if the dispute could thus be settled in a better way.

For both, Fidel and the communist imperialism, the problem is very simple: let the dispute over the Panama Canal go unsolved and it will be continuously used as an anti-American banner of propaganda.

Any communist, no matter where he is located, has been taught to shout against several well-known issues, the Panama Canal among them. It is in all Marxist text books. There is nothing more important nowadays than to stir the problem of the Panama Canal everywhere and by all means.

Undoubtedly, behind this maneuver we can find Fidel and his agents.

It is the same thing with many other matters in this hemisphere where communism has settled, thanks to Fidel's betrayal in turning over the Cuban territory, so that communist imperialism can use it as an aggressive military base.

Cuba is at present a stronghold of the Soviet Empire. Soviets have two faces, as communists always have. One of the faces speaks of "peaceful co-existence" while the other trains and arms its agents to break out subversions and Marxist revolutions. No wonder Cuba is the training camp for people who go there from other countries seeking the proper instructions and training in the techniques of guerrilla warfare and urban underground subversion.

As long as Cuba remains under the paws of communist imperialism, there will be neither peace nor security in this hemisphere.

As long as my country is a slave under communism, with Fidel and his gang, my people will not be free, nor will they progress towards civilization and liberty.

Most of the Cuban people have not resigned themselves to live under the inhuman socialist-communist system, and we long for the day we can see our country free, independent and sovereign.

It is to reach this goal that we demand the help and cooperation of men and women of good will. We do not expect you to fail us, since ours is a patriotic call on behalf of a friendly people in this continent, people who feel deceived, betrayed and abandoned.

We have to destroy the sanctuary of International Communism in America, since it is from Cuba that the ominous communist propaganda is poisoning and deceiving the credulous in this nation and in the whole continent as well.

"The tree of Liberty must be refreshed, from time to time, by the blood of patriots and tyrants," said Thomas Jefferson; thus, the anti-communist Cubans, both in Cuba and in exile, have sworn before the altar of our Almighty God and by the memory of our martyrs, that we shall free our country or we shall perish in the attempt!

Cuba is not negotiable. If Cuba is definitely lost for America, America will also be definitely lost for democracy and freedom.

I plead with you to think most seriously about what I have said here today. I plead with you to act today, not tomorrow. And in acting, let's have faith that "this nation, or any other nation, conceived in Liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal, shall not perish from the earth."

Thank-you very much.
