In a public statement on March 12, Prime Minister Fidel CASTRO declared he is studying the possibility of merging all Cuban airlines into one enterprise. Has requested a committee to report to Dr. BOTI, Minister of Economy, on feasibility. Also stated his opinion that helicopter service is answer to problem of providing air transport to all parts of island. He said bilateral air agreements are presently under study and that Cia. Cubana de Aviacion in near future wished to extend routes to Chicago and Los Angeles, etc.
