

SALVADOR LEVY RODRIGUEZ, Cuban exile in Miami area has been assigned by Cuban revolutionary groups to "terrorize" Edmund Chester during his visits to Florida.

Levy Rodriguez has been working at it since late June, and he is believed to have been the leader of a group which entered Chester's property near Mount Dora, Florida in late June and in July and tried to terrorize Chester, his wife and small children. He apparently was accompanied on this mission by CLIFFORD LEE CLARK and others.

LEVY RODRIGUEZ recently reported to his chiefs that he was finding it difficult to attack CHESTER because he (CHESTER) apparently has some influence with U.S. government law enforcement officers.

CLIFFORD LEE CLARK, aka CLIFFORD C. CLARK is a negro; 50 years old; 5 ft. 10 inches tall; weight about 165 pounds; with a scar on the upper part of his right cheek. He now resides at 1904 N.W. 2nd Court, Miami. He formerly lived at 5700 N.W. 23rd Street, Miami. He seldom works but when employed he usually works as a truck driver; last known employer is Hills Brothers Coffee Company, Miami. CLARK lives with a woman he says is his second wife; has five children, some his, some the woman's; living in house on N.W. 2nd Court. He is a Leader and an active member of NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People).

CLARK took active part in race disorders in Miami in spring of 1957, when white residents protested negroes' rights to move into white residential area. Clark moved into the area and became a leader in the disorders that followed.

In Spring of 1958 CLARK was suspected, along with two other men, of being the owners of 30 cases of dynamite found hidden in a field near the Dade-Broward County line.

CLARK is now associated with some sort of mysterious activities with a Cuban named Raul Castaneda or Raul Castanera. CLARK has been in Central Florida recently on an unknown mission

It has been reported that Clark's activities have been brought to the attention of the Florida Legislative Investigating Committee. CLARK owns and drives a green Buick (1950 sedan) with Florida license plate No. 1W 30521, year 1958.

Cuban exile, SALVADOR LEVY RODRIGUEZ, known terrorist, has been designated to lead an attack on Edmund Chester. Levy Rodriguez, a former singer of Cuban hill billy type songs, is associated in illicit arms activities with other terrorists, all Cubans, now residing in the Miami area. Among them, Manuel Alvarez, alias "NELO", GERARDO VAZQUEZ ALVARADO, OSCAR ALVARADO and LEONEL (or LIONEL) ALONSO FIEL.

The above named persons now have a large cache of arms hidden in Ft. Lauderdale. All of these arms were bought and paid for by JOSE B. ALEMAN.

ALONSO is Chief of the Special Action Group for Cuban oppositionists in Miami area and is responsible for much of the violent actions against pro-government Cubans visiting the Miami area.

ALONSO, regarded by Cuban authorities as one of the most dangerous criminals in the exile group, works as a sports expert on Diario Las Americas, as a cover for his criminal activities. He spends most of his free time at Hotel Royalton. He frequently spends time at a rooming house operated by a man named ADRIANO AGUIAR.

LEVY RODRIGUEZ recently reported to his chiefs in Cuba that the reason he had failed to do bodily harm to CHESTER was that he is afraid CHESTER has too much influence with United States law enforcement officers. He reported, however, that he has CHESTER thoroughly "checked" and that he knows every move CHESTER makes while in the United States.
