

GAMBLING AND MURDER.—On the 19th inst. a tragic affair occurred at Aberdeen, Miss., which resulted in the death of a Mr. Fannin. It seems that Fannin had won a considerable amount from Col. M. J. Bunch, at cards, which the latter agreed to pay at a certain time. When Fannin called at Bunch's room he found it locked, and walked down the steps. Before reaching the foot of the steps Bunch came to the door and called him, and immediately fired both barrels of a double barreled shot gun at him, and then ran down the steps and beat him with the gun. Fannin served as an officer in the Texas revolution, and in the Mexican war, and was a brother of the hero who fell at the Fannin massacre. Col. Bunch had not been arrested.
