Northern Mexico.

The Galveston (Texas) News publishes the

following card:

HO! FOR MEXICO!--WHO WILL GO?

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 13, 1858.

To the Editors of the News:

Sirs: I will leave for Texas on the Berwick's Bay line to-morrow, for the purpose of emigrating to Northern Mexico, and rare facilities will be offered to all those who wish to join me for that designation. No arms nor organizations will be allowed, further than to insure mutual protection, as long as the emigrants are in the territory of the United States, as no law must be violated in becoming oit zons of the Sierra Madra States. We expect organizations will be allowed, further than to insure mutual protection, as long as the emigrants are in the territory of the United States, as no law must be violated in becoming etizons of the Sierra Madro States. We expect to be ready by the lat of April. Large means and some of the most influential citizens of this country are engaged in this enterprise, which must insure its success, beyond doubt. I will be able to give you further information, when I arrive at Galveston. By giving this notice you will confer a favor, &c. I am, respectfully.

This is part of a movement says a contemporary which is on total the says a contemporary which is on total to the says a contemporary which is on total to the says a contemporary which is on total to the says a contemporary which is on total to the says a contemporary which is on total to the says a contemporary which is on total to the says a contemporary which is on total to the says and the says are the says are the says and the says are says and says are says are says and says are says and says are says and says are says and says are says are says and says are says are says and says are says porary, which is on foot in the southwest for revolutionizing and annexing to the United States the Northern Provinces of the Mexican Republic. Col. Lockridge is the principal recruiting agent of the Expedition in New Orleans and Texas, but he is aided and sustained by capitalists at the North. He will probably proceed to Sonora and join the revolutionary forces which are already in arms against the Central Government. It is understood that the expedition has the countenance and support of Comonfort, who is still in New Orleans; and in the present distracted and enfeebled condition of the Mexican Government it is quite likely to be attended with success.

Orleans; and in the present distracted and enfeebled condition of the Mexican Government it is quite likely to be attended with success. Mr. Buchanan has endeavored, by direct negotiation with Mexico, to purchase the province of Sonora, but hitherto without success. It is wanted by the Administration mainly to furnish a route to the Gulf of California for the projected Pacific railrond. As there is, however, no established Government in Mexico with which negotiations can be carried on, no progress has yet been made towards the arrangement. It is not at all improbable judging from the above, that the desired territory may be acquired by a shorter and cheaper process than by purchase.