

Legation of Nicaragua
New York Sept 4th 1856

Dear John S. Gilman
Washington D.C.

Dear General

I have been waiting anxiously to hear from you in regard to my last addressed. The steamer for Nicaragua sails on the 9th inst - in 5 days - and I am very desirous of getting a definite reply from the U.S Government before that time.

Genl Gorcónia has gone to Washington under the pretence of conferring with Mr. Lowe, who it is rumored, has given him from the English government in regard to the prospective question. I expressed to him my opinion that it was highly in keeping with diplomatic usages and with his peculiar functions to have anything to say upon that subject in the United States except through me... and that the facts of his visiting Washington and having ~~intercourse~~ with persons connected with the government of the United States or semi-official delegations by England to confer with the said government, would injuriously affect our position. But in spite of this he has gone. Mr. and Mrs. ~~Heiss~~ have struck up a sudden intimacy and from various circumstances I am convinced that there is an undercurrent working against me. The letter in the Times which attacked me I am satisfied never came from Granger.

Several of the leading members of the Democratic party in this city are anxious to get a meeting to enquire the feelings of this community upon the subject.

in the event that the Administration refuses to receive me.

If after I have had his refusal) to turn over the archives of the Legation to me. I sent him a note by Don Pedro G. Silva, Secy of Legation, after having had several unsatisfactory interviews with him, requesting him so to do, which he refused to answer. Under these circumstances I have thought that my proper course would be to take decided steps to assert my position, and if he interferes at all with my duties I shall publish a copy of my credentials and warn all parties from treating with him in behalf of the government of Nicaragua in any way. I represented to him that a persistence in the views which he seems to have taken would place him in a position antagonistic to the administration of President Walker, that his authority was derived from a representation of Rivas who was now a traitor to the government of Nicaragua - and his pretending to hold diplomatic powers derived from Rivas who still claims to be President of Nicaragua, would afford the United States a plausible excuse for refusing to receive a Minister of President Walker until the question was decided by the overthrows of Rivas. The fact of his visiting the President and claiming to be 'Chargé d' Affairs' of Nicaragua under Rivas' authority I am satisfied has had a very unfavorable effect - I begged him if he had any regard for General Walker or his cause not to go to Washington, but in vain. This only excuse is a groundless one, and if he is sincere in it argues but poorly for his diplomatic ability or judgement. The clause that he gives up his position as Charge d' Affairs elections would be suspended between the United States and Nicaragua. Of what use are elections unless they exist through President Walker's administration?

How the elections which have already existed amounted to anything? — Would the United States treat with Major Weiss any sooner than with me, and if they would could President Walker acknowledge my acts of one not bearing his authority?
I am at a loss to understand the matter as I can not think Major Weiss a man of so little perseveration and discernment as to be actually ignorant of all these considerations, and of the effect which his conduct would be likely to produce.

My private and confidential advices from my government inform me that powers are now on the way to the Minister of Guatemala at Washington empowering him to represent Rivers near the government of the United States. These powers cannot reach this country within two weeks and whatever is done must be done quickly. The United States will be in a worse position after their arrival than now and the only way to prevent it will be to receive me at once.

The execution of Mr Livingston by the ~~old~~ forces of San Salvador and Guatemala under the Mulan leader Bellido calls for the immediate action of this government.

Please make such use of this information as you think proper bearing in mind that the matter concerning the Guatemalan Minister is confidential.

Please be kind enough to telegraph me tomorrow the prospects - whether favorable to immediate acceptance or not - and also when you leave Washington.

I am very dear General.

Very truly

Your obd^r friend & servt
