TIPS FOR TRAVELERS

1. Make sure you have a valid passport and visa, if required. In case of an emergency, a relative in the U.S. should have a passport also.
2. Call the State Department's Citizens Emergency Center at (202) 647-5225 for information on the areas to be visited. Stay aware of events in the country you are visiting.
3. Make 2 photocopies of your passport identification page. Leave one copy at home. Carry the other with you in a separate place from your passport. This will facilitate replacement if your passport is lost or stolen.
4. Leave a copy of your itinerary with family or friends at home so you can be contacted in case of emergency.
5. When traveling in disturbed or remote areas, or residing abroad, you should register and keep in touch with the nearest American embassy or consulate.
6. Do not leave luggage unattended in public areas or accept packages from strangers.
7. Avoid conspicuous clothing and expensive jewelry and do not carry excessive amounts of money or unnecessary credit cards.
8. In order to avoid violating local laws, deal only with authorized agents when exchanging money or purchasing souvenirs.
9. Familiarize yourself with local laws and customs of the countries to which you are traveling. While in a foreign country, you are subject to its laws.
10. Contact the nearest U.S. consul if you get into trouble.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

This edition of the United States passport honors both Dr. Benjamin Franklin, perhaps our most distinguished early diplomat, and the bicentennial anniversary of the U.S. Consular Service. Dr. Franklin's outstanding accomplishments are closely interwoven into the early history of the Consular Service.

One of history's great renaissance persons, Benjamin Franklin had distinguished parallel careers as an author, journalist, scientist, inventor, political philosopher and statesman. Few persons throughout the past two thousand years have made more lasting contributions to western civilization. As United States Minister to France during the Revolutionary War, Dr. Franklin was instrumental in securing vital continental European support for the fledgling American republic.

Dr. Franklin also performed the duties of a U.S. Consular Officer, issuing passports and providing services to the citizens of the new American republic who were travelling abroad. In an effort to gain assistance with this critical work, and in recognition of the need for knowledgeable U.S. businessmen to oversee our commercial interests abroad, Dr. Franklin vigorously lobbied the Congress for the appointment to France of Consul and Vice Consuls. To that end, Dr. Franklin and Charles Graves, the French foreign minister, signed a consular convention on July 29, 1784.

Continuing in the tradition of Dr. Franklin, United States consular officers have a distinguished 200 year history of providing aid to Americans located in the farthest reaches of the world. Please be assured that this passport, which you now bear as a citizen or national of the United States, guarantees that you will find a welcoming beacon wherever the U.S. flag flies abroad.
