LONDON, September 19th.

The fasds opened leavily, owing to the dissulfaction occasioned by the findian news, which strengthens the belief that a lean must be raised. The demand for money in the discount market was extremely brisk.

There was quite a speculative moremont in ite, and several large transactions at improved prices.

A grand banquet was given this even-ing at which were the Governor-General and suite, members of the Cabinet, sev-eral members of Parliament, ex-Governor Hunt of N. I., and several other distin-guished gentlemen.

Boston, October II.

The Cencerd railroad bridge at Housatonic, over the Merrimae river which was burned last evening, from sparks igniting the roof, was insured for $15,000.

It will be immediately re-built.

District, October I.

The State Fair commenced here on Tuesday. The character of the exhibition fully equals any previous year, but the attendance is not so large. The weather to-day is rainy and cold.

Columbia, October 1. Wm. B. Bartess, teller in the South-western Railroad Bank of Columbia, S. C., has absconded with $60,000.

New York, October I.
