FROM KANSAS.

FACTS OF THE LAST INVASION.

I send you herewith a mass of important to mone as to the late invasion. It was taken bel the Congressional Committee. The testimon Mr. Weaver, the Committee's Sergeant at Ar say in red histo, calling themsives and known as a see Such Gaudhas party, were and the city; in about a see Such Gaudhas party, were and the city; in about a see Such Gaudhas party, were and the city; in about a see Such Gaudhas party, were and the city; in the see Such Such Gaudhas party of the city of the city of the city, and at this me and the city, and at this me at the city, and at this me is a distance of the city, and at this me is a see of the city, and at this me is a see of the city, and at this me is a see of the city, and at this me is a see of the city, and the city, and at this me is a see of the city, and the city was cyling to elected the pland on; some three of four of these divines on the city was cyling to desirency of at the city, and that the city was cyling to the derived of the city, and that the city was cyling to the derived of the city, and that the city was cyling to the city, and that the city was cyling to was red party of the city, and that the city was cyling to was red party of the city, and that the city was cyling to was red party of the city, and that the city was cyling to was red party of the city, and that the city was cyling to was red party of the city, and that the city was cyling to was red party of the city, and that the city was cyling to was red party of the city, and that the city was cyling to the city of the city ys on friendly terms, and we are now; he was kind to my family while I was away from home og the Lawrence troubles. Joseph Oakley, worsee, K. T., May 12, 1838.