Ki ya Bill,

This is Barbara Padovano, Claire's sister. I was also Mitch Kostek's wife. He has the tavern in Kearny, near Theobald's. I am sure you remember. It has been a few years.

Claire & I wanted to send you a card but couldn't find one. So rather than wait we decided to write.

My sister and I followed some of your story in the newspaper. We couldn't find out where you were. Elaine asked, finally, and we were given your address. You still have friends who think of you. Not just us two.

We hope you are well. We also have been doing some reading. There are a lot of things we can't understand. We pray that you will have good health. Anything we can do please let us know.

Elaine &
Barbara
