

West Palm Beach,
Florida

Feb. 20, 1974

Picking Oranges in Florida

Dear Guillermo,

I was very happy to receive your letter. I understood what you said.
Mi Papa y yo fuimos
a un acto aqui en
Palm Beach. Manolo
Reyes was there.

He gave a speech
and the acto was good. But to my suprise only about 65 people came. Would you call that interest
in our Native Cuba?

The acto was in a
hall of a Latin Church
here in the community.
Maybe when you get out you can come
with your wife
and visit. It is wonderful here. The beaches are close and

we enjoy the sun.
My father visits
Felipe quite often.

Good Luck,

Papio II

Jorge M. Gonzalez

838 El Prado

West Palm Beach, Florida

33405

Mr. Guillermo Novo Sampol
Pembroke Station #80125
Danbury, Connecticut 06810

(VIA AIRMAIL)