

Lewis Clarke—This graduate from the peculiar institution had a crowded meeting in the First Freewill Baptist church in Lowell, on Sunday evening. He gave a thrilling account of his experience while a slave under various masters and overseers in Kentucky, for a period of 25 years. The impression upon the audience must have been salutary.—Middlesex Standard.