

NEGRO ADMITS KILLING WOMAN NEAR ROBINSON

By Associated Press.

WACO, May 9.—Jesse Washington, a negro boy, has confessed that he criminally assaulted and then killed Mrs. George Fryar, 63, near Robinson, seven miles south of here, yesterday afternoon, according to the sheriff and the county attorney.

The negro revealed the place where he hid the hammer after Mrs. Fryar was killed, and officers have gone to the place designated by Washington.

In an effort to prevent mob violence Washington has been removed from the McLennan county jail for safe keeping.

The officers refuse to reveal Washington's whereabouts. Blood was found on his clothing.
