

Negroes Lynched By Negroes.

SUREVEICORT, La., May 23.—William and John Anderson, colored, who held a girl named Jane Ware on the railroad track La Bossier Parish until the train ran over and killed her, were pursued by a posse of Negroes and were captured and hanged. They offered no explanation for their deed. The Andersons were bad characters.