

The Burning of the Steamer Germantown. -Thieves Lynched.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 27.

The steamer Germantown was burned near Raleigh, just above Shawneetown, Ill. The fire originated in the after hold, among some paper, supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Some thieves being among the passengers, they commenced their depredations on the trunk, &c. Two were caught and lynched on the spot.