

---

A DUEL IN GEORGIA.—On the 21th instant a duel took place near Savannah, Georgia, between Charles A. L. Lamar, owner of the celebrated yacht Wanderer, and Commodore Moore, formerly of the Texan navy.—The difficulty arose from the evidence of the latter in the trial of Captain Farnum. After an exchange of shots the matter was amicably and honorably adjusted by their respective friends.

---